◀ Doing business close to nature doesn't mean you have to leave the finer things in life behind. Their well-maintained accommodations are authentic but comfortable.

HOMEWATERS

At HomeWaters Retreat, all business is pleasure. Entertain clients, hold a corporate retreat, make a sales presentation...whatever you do here, it makes a lasting impression on your clients, your colleagues and your life. "All work and no play" is no fun; we prefer "all work is play."

Arrive in the afternoon and shoot a round of sporting clays to let off some steam. That evening enjoy cocktails and a gourmet dinner in the riverside clubhouse. Later, share stories of leadership and success or seal the big corporate deal with a fireside conversation.

The next morning head out to the pristine blue ribbon trout streams for a fly fishing experience. Break for lunch by the water amid the beautiful surroundings and share stories of fish landed and the one that got away.

To top it off...

2X Super Bowl Champion and team captain, Brett Keisel will be leading and guiding you and your team 100% of the way. He will share his passion and love for the outdoors and why he insists it is a recipe for success. Brett has a unique way of relating his experiences from 13 years in the NFL, with the adversities and decisions faced in business, leadership and life.
